MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

North Slope Science Initiative Science Technical Advisory Panel to Meet in Fairbanks

The North Slope Science Initiative (NSSI) Science Technical Advisory Panel (STAP) will meet February 8, 2016 at 1:30 p.m. in Room 417 of the International Arctic Research Center, University of Alaska Fairbanks, 930 Koyukuk Drive, Fairbanks, Alaska. There will be an opportunity for public comment from 4:30 to 5 p.m.

The NSSI is an intergovernmental effort to increase collaboration on the science needed to make informed decisions related to development and environmental change on Alaska's North Slope and its adjacent seas. The STAP provides advice and recommendations to NSSI regarding priority research and monitoring needs for management decisions.

The meeting will include introductions of new appointees, review of STAP procedures, continued review of emerging issues on the North Slope, and application of the North Slope Scenarios implications to inventory, monitoring and research priorities.

For additional information, contact Denny Lassuy, Acting Director, NSSI at 907-271-3212.
